Hampden Charter School of Science Parent Involvement Policy

School will involve parents in regular, two-way meaningful communication addressing student achievement and ensuring:

- *That parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning
- *That parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education
- *That parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child.

Hampden Charter School of Science agrees to implement:

- *Involve parents in the joint planning and development of the school's Title I plan through in fall and spring meetings.
- *Involve parents in an Annual Meeting of the Title I Program .The Annual Review will include an analysis of state and local assessment data, a review of grade level needs and services provided parent/teacher/and/or student survey data, and a summary analysis of the effectiveness of Title I Services.
- *Involve parents in the development, implementation, and review of Parent School Compacts. The compact will be discussed and signed during fall parent-teacher conferences and reviewed during spring conferences. The compact will also be posted on the school website.
- *Involve parents in the planning and development of effective parent involvement activities through Parent & Teacher meetings.

Build the schools' and parents' capacity for parent involvement by:

* Providing parents with information on state standards, assessments, monitoring their child's progress, and working with educators. Information will be provided during an annual meeting, through quarterly progress notices, at parent-teacher conferences, in the school newsletter, and on the district website.

*Providing materials, resources and training to help parents work with their children to improve academic achievement. Resources will be provided in classroom newsletters and communications.

*Communicating regularly with parents in clear and understandable terms. This will include opportunities for parents to participate in decision-making roles, volunteer opportunities, , classroom newsletters, an annual parent survey, parent school compacts, and parent-teacher conferences. Parent-teacher meetings will be scheduled at any time, as requested by parents.
